Vanati Hosts Pittsburgh Charity Event to Benefit Women for Women International

“ An opportunity to experience the life changing affects of Cellular Expansion and Healing”

Pittsburgh, PA – May 28, 2009 – Vanati will host the Cellular Expansion and Healing Benefit Evening on Thursday June 11 at the Nuin Center in Pittsburgh with all proceeds going to Women for Women International, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping women survivors of war transform from victim to survivor.

“We are honored to raise funds for such a fantastic cause while providing the local community an opportunity to experience the life changing affects of Cellular Expansion and Healing,” said Deb Schnitta, Vanati CEO and Founder of Cellular Expansion, “Many people attending the event for the first time tell me they arrived hopeful but uncertain, and leave feeling invigorated and profoundly changed.”

Cellular Expansion and Healing is a revolutionary form of hands-on energy work that continues to grow in popularity due to great success for individuals afflicted with stress, anxiety, and life issues as well as acute and chronic illness. With rising health care costs and increases in economic hardships, many are finding Cellular Expansion to be the integrative medicine of choice.

Vanati has been hosting the Cellular Expansion and Healing Benefit Evening in Pittsburgh for over three years on the second Thursday of each month. Graduates of Vanati will donate their time to provide sessions at a reduced fee of $25 for a 45-minute session at either 7:00 PM or 7:45 PM on Thursday June 11.

Reservations are required in advance as sessions are limited and can be made by:
